A Great Stay!

5/5 - Georgean March 2024

La Villa Bella is an exceptional property and Jossie is a marvelous host who promptly responded to my queries. Yes, the gated community and area surrounding La Punta El Custodio is safe. It is also remarkably beautiful..the landscaping, the plantings, the meticulous care of the grounds...like living in a botanical garden. We were 3 generations, and the lovely villa provided plenty of space, indoors and outdoors. There are four bedroom suites, as well as a 1/2 bath off the living area. The villa is extremely well stocked with supplies, including bottled water. Los Plantanitos is rural, this is a place to rest and relax, or perhaps swim/wade (depending on the tide) to the pristine Playa Las Tortugas.

There are beach restaurants serving fresh grilled fish, but no real grocery store. We were so glad to have Chelo and her assistant Ava greet us in the morning by preparing fresh-squeezed orange juice and a hot breakfast. They then prepared lunch and dinner for us to heat up . Fresh fruits, fresh fish, fresh tortillas! This is an ~ 2 hour drive from PVR airport. Pay attention to the speed limit!! it seems low compared to what we are used to in the US. Also, familiarize yourself with left turns, completely different in Mexico!! A great stay. Gracias!

Good morning! I have been playing every morning since reading your enote knowing that Chelo and Eva are enjoying the vibes! I play for an hour and I hope it makes their day more enjoyable. Thank you again for the kind words. They mean a lot to me.

Paradise was Found!

5/5 - Valerie Published March 2024

Wow! We were blown away by this beautiful place. The food was incredible, the owner was easy to communicate with and the home was spacious and more than we could have hoped for. The pictures don't do it justice. The only thing I would say is I was surprised in getting there. It felt like we came to a dead end in a very small village and freaked out for a second. One of the residents told us to continue up a rocky dirt road for a while which didn't feel right and we were all a little nervous. But we ended up at the top of the hill and the gate was there & paradise was found. Just a heads up though for any others that might be surprised or concerned when driving there. Would stay here again in a heartbeat!

Lovely!

Maison magnifique!

5/5 - Marie josee Published August 2023

Nous y avons séjourné 7 nuits. Maison magnifique. Emplacement exceptionnel avec une vue spectaculaire sur le pacifique, des jardins luxuriants. La maison est tres confortable. Lits parfaits, climatisation parfaite et cuisine tres bien equipée. La piscine était tres propre et agréable Tout le personnel etait fort accueillant. Nous avons pris le services avec repas et wow, nous avons mangé comme des rois Je recommande d'avoir une voiture. L'endroit est un peu isolé. Pour cette raison, le service du chef était fort utile Je recommande fortement

A Piece of Paradise!

5/5 - Alondra Published July 2023

Me and my family stayed at the villa for 2 nights only, the second we arrived we instantly regretted not booking the whole week in this amazing place! The whole property is like a fantasy dream, a piece of paradise! The most amazing sunsets by the community pool. Host and all the personnel are really friendly. We will definitely come back to this piece of paradise.

Imagine Paradise!

All you need to know is that it's like a 5-star stay without the 5-star nonsense. Jossie's villa had the most stunning grounds compared to all the stunning grounds, so if you can imagine paradise, then this is it. The food was fantastic, the people were fantastic, and the relaxing was fantastic, and the jacuzzi... I'll stop here. It's tops.

A Fantastic vacation!

5/5 - Matt Published June 2023

What a fantastic week. The villa is even better than the pictures, and the entire property is absolutely stunning. We enjoyed the meals prepared for us and the meals we had down in Platanitos equally. Come stay here if you want to get away from the world for a bit and visit a place that borders on magic.

Beautiful

The most amazing Villa ...what a beautiful, serene veranda sounds and sights of the ocean. The home in detail of culture, well equipped, comfortable with the options for a daily chef made is the most comfortable girl trip experience. Sitting on the veranda, watching the squirrels play in the trees in the sound of the ocean, with a hot cup of coffee preparing for the day. That's what I look forward to. .. the peace!

My Great Experience

5/5 - Mark Published Apr 2022

In my experience, rarely if ever is a vacation locale, setting, house style, amenities and current condition so completely matched what is described on line in words and pictures. La Villa Bella cannot be beat for comfort, beauty and spirited staff; it was a joy and difficult to leave behind. All four bedrooms were lovely and efficient, and with 3-4 common rooms to enjoy, our gang of seven felt as ease throughout. I can't recommend the place enough.

Great getaway for family surfing and sitting pool side

5/5 - Brandon C. Published Mar 2022

Our family of five spent five days in the compound and never left. We had breakfast, lunch, and dinner prepared for us each day by Chelo, sat pool and beach side, and surfed the 2-3 foot waves everyday. The beach has a large sand bar, which is nice for kids and even adults to learn to surf on. Internet - each house has its own satellite Internet connection with wifi. The wifi worked for us in the main room and pool area. Also, it should be noted that Verizon or roaming Verizon does not have service at the house, but has 3G at the beach. The Internet is slower than your typical Wifi, but works. We look forward to returning next year.

A Relaxing Vacation!

5/5 - Anonymous - Happy Guest Published Dec 2022

This was to be a relaxing vacation for us. Our daughter found this gem of a Vrbo called La Villa Bella...su Hacienda. Boy what a property. It is decorated beautifully. No matter where you look, is a visual delight. We absolutely loved everything about the home. To have our own private pool and jacuzzi was wonderful. All bedrooms were fantastic and had their own split systems for air and heat. The kitchen was fully stocked with everything you would need. The girls wanted to cook, so that is what we did.

The owner/manager Jossie always responded very quickly to any question or request we had. The staff of Chelo our housekeeper, Nilo and Vicente who took care of the pool and maintenance were all so friendly and provided excellent customer service. It made our 7 day stay so special. La Villa Bella...su Hacienda is in a gated community along the ocean with many beautiful unique homes. The community pool overlooks the ocean and there are many areas just to sit and take in that ocean and of course the most beautiful sunsets. The village at the beach had amazing restaurants with food that was amazing. All in all, this was the most relaxing vacation we have ever had. We definitely will be back next year to enjoy this gem of a home in paradise.
